CIRCUIT COURT

Judge James C. Dedman appointed Wm. G. McClintock, of Paris, Wm. D. McIntyre, of Millersburg, and George R. Burberry, of Clintonville, as Jury Commissioners to select the list of names from which the petit and grand jurors for the March term of the court will be drawn.

Henry Feedback, of Millersburg, who has been serving a sentence in the Frankfort jail on a charge of violating the prohibition laws, was returned to Paris yesterday in charge of the Franklin county jailer. Feedback will be given a hearing in the Circuit Court on a charge of selling a moonshine still for the purpose of manufacturing liquor illegally.

The term of the Court was occupied yesterday in hearing the case of Chas. P. Mann, etc., vs. B. M. Renick, involving a real estate deal. The case went to the jury who, after being out only five minutes, returned a verdict, giving Mann a judgment for $260.

Upon the return of Special Judge James C. Dedman, from Mt. Olivet, where he had been holding a special session of the Robertson Circuit Court, business was resumed in the Bourbon Circuit Court. After the usual motion hour several prisoners confined in the Paris jail were brought into Court and formally arraigned.

Eliza Zimmerman, whose home is on the farm of J. Hal Woodford, near Paris, where a moonshine still was discovered several weeks ago, by Sheriff Collier and deputies, entered a plea of guilty, and was fined $100 and given a jail sentence of ten days.

John Hill, on whose farm a moonshine still was found, also pleaded guilty to the charge, and was given a fine of $100 and ten days in jail.

Aaron Linville, charged with gaming, was fined $250, and Geo. Russell, charged with violation of the prohibition laws, was given a ten-days jail sentence and a fine of $150.

The case of John Cain, Jr., charged with bootlegging, was dismissed from the Circuit Court and placed on the juvenile list, when it was learned that he was only fifteen years old.

A large portion of the Court's time was taken up in hearing the testimony in the case of Ray Stipp against Isaac Shouse. The action grew out of an accident which happened in September, 1921, when an automobile belonging to Isaac Shouse, of Salt Lick, collided with Stipp's auto on the Maysville pike, near Millersburg. The Shouse car was being driven at the time by Carl Kircheval, and the Stipp car by Miss Jessie Crisp, and was occupied by her mother, a guest from Florida, and Mr. Stipp. The car was damaged so that it was sold a few days later for $27, according to the testimony. Mr. Stipp was injured about the head and face when he was thrown through the windshield, according to the testimony. Mr. Stipp suffered $1,000, and a counter suit for damages in the sum of $300 to cover damages to his car was filed by Shouse. The jury in the case returned a verdict giving Stipp a judgment in the sum of $800.

REPORT OF CRAYCRAFT SALE

Auctioneer George D. Speakes conducted the sale of stock, crop and farming implements belonging to Wm. Craycraft, of the premises, near Paris. Everything brought very satisfactory prices, and the attendance was good, with spirited bidding.

Cows sold from $50 to $88; small steers, $27; corn, $4.50 per barrel in the crib; horses and mules sold for low prices; baled hay, $16 to $17.50 per ton; baled oats, $15 per ton; baled straw, $8 per ton. Farming implements brought good prices.

COURT NEWS

Deputy State Warden A. W. Bullock, of Paris, paid a visit in his official capacity to Harrison county Friday and arrested Amos Hill and Raymond Gillispie on charges of hunting without a license. They were presented in the Harrison County Court and each fined $24.95. Warden Bullock is a ferret when it comes to searching out violators of the game laws.

In the County Court Saturday Mark Hopper, and his wife, Bertha Hopper, were given a hearing before Judge George Batterton, charged with failing to send their child to school. They were held to the grand jury in $200 bond each.

Dan Vanhook, colored, charged with having liquor in his possession for the purpose of sale, was fined $100 and sentenced to jail for thirty days. The liquor was found in Vanhook's room on Lilliston avenue when searched by Sheriff James Gibson about a week ago.

In the case of L. T. Leach, charged with a violation of the liquor laws by selling a half-pint of moonshine whisky to Jos. Small, of Millersburg, the jury was at first unable to reach a verdict and returned with the statement to that effect. They were sent back to reconsider and finally returned with a verdict giving Leach a jail sentence of thirty days and a $100 fine.

Leach had been tried previously in the County Court, and given the same fine and sentence. He appealed the case to the Circuit Court, and at the first trial last week the jury was unable to agree on a verdict. The case against Leach charging him with making his escape from jail while awaiting trial, was continued to the March term of court.

JIM CLASS HIKES.

The younger boys' gym class of the Y. M. C. A., which meets Monday and Wednesday afternoons at 3:30, and Saturday mornings at 10 o'clock, varied its program Saturday morning, November 25, by taking a hike. Peacock pike was selected as the destination, and with wieners to roast and peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, a fine time was enjoyed. The following boys made up the party: William Amyx, Karl Lusk, John Childers, Charles Childers, Norwood Cook, Roy Patterson, Henry Collins, Carl Dykes, Harry Lancaster, Petie Floyd, John Bower, James Hill, George Swearingen, Julian Howe, and Secretary C. H. Humphrey.

PHILLIPS' SPECIAL ON BLUE-GRASS-RAISED, HOME-KILLED BEEF

No place in the world, and that's a lot of territory, can there be seen on display a better lot of Bluegrass-raised, fed and home-killed beef. A roast or steak off this meat simply can't be beat. Let us sell you a trial order and make a regular customer of you. We will also have during the holiday season nice dressed chickens and fish. Fat and fresh Baltimore oysters, the best of all kinds of delicatessen goods, celery, grape fruit, cranberries, etc. Don't forget the fine beef as that is always going to be our main special—we believe in killing nothing but the best beef money can buy.

SATURDAY'S GAMES

Kentucky Freshmen, 20; Tennessee Freshmen, 6.
Centre College Freshmen, 32; Freshmen, 0.
Flemingsburg High School, 58; Lexington Model High School, 0.

Playing one of the most remarkable games ever witnessed on Stoll Field, the University of Kentucky Wild Kittens Saturday afternoon won the freshman championship of the South by beating the hitherto undefeated University of Tennessee Rats 20 to 6.

The Millersburg Military Institute football eleven went down in defeat on the M. M. I. grounds Friday afternoon before the onslaught of the strong Kentucky Military Institute team by the score of 31 to 8. Carr, although injured in the early part of the game, gamely continued throughout the contest with two broken ribs. The two elevens battled hard in the first half but the K. M. I. warriors came through in the last period to win after being held to a tie in the first thirty minutes of play.

In their last game on the home grounds, Friday, the Paris High School eleven defeated the Versailles High School team by the score of 19 to 0. The first touchdown was made in the second quarter by Nash, of the P. H. S. team, who recovered a fumble and ran forty-five yards for a touchdown. Tucker failed to kick goal. Later in the same quarter another touchdown was made by Nash, after a sensational catch of a forward pass from Tucker. Tucker again failed to kick goal. In the third quarter Tucker made a touchdown after successful line plunges and kicked goal. Edgar, of the Versailles team, was the outstanding player of the game.

WIND SAVES HOME FROM FIRE.

To the fact that a strong wind was blowing at the time may be ascribed the escape from destruction by fire of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gaitskill's home near Austerlitz.

Fire originating from an unknown cause destroyed a cabin and meat house located within a short distance of the residence, which was saved by a strong wind blowing the flames in an opposite direction. A negro woman who works for the family saved the meat, but lost all her own possessions and a purse containing $15 in currency in the blaze that destroyed the cabin. Mr. and Mrs. Gaitskill were in Paris at the time the fire occurred but were soon located and notified. No insurance was carried on the buildings or contents.

EDITORIAL FLINGS

A Thought For The Day—Love is not blind. It sees faults in those it adores. But it sees how much more important are the nobilities and beauties which shine above and beyond the faults and failures.

The penitentiaries in Kentucky are nowadays called reformatories, but in view of the fact that they are places of detention for persons waiting confidently for pardons, shouldn't they have been named the State purgatories?

When a Paris man incessantly swings a cane on the street, it should not be presumed that it is affection, or that he is on a big flirtation. It might be rescuing an arm from "pen paralysis," or some thing of that kind not fully understood by the public.

Kentucky will have to ship away its 40,000,000 gallons of ardent spirits. And then we will be singing the old sad refrain, "The day goes by like a shadow o'er the heart, with sorrow where all was delight." Then my old Kentucky home, goodnight.

A Southern court has decided that the fresh water mussel is not a wild animal. Any of the boys or girls who have stepped on one while bathing (the boys and girls, not the mussel) in Stoner Creek will answer that it is a dangerous creature for all that.

EATING LEGAL CHEESE

Litigation is expensive, but it does not seem to deter some people from rushing to the courts in the settlement of trifling cases. Recently a county paper carried an account of a lawsuit being vigorously waged over a trivial sum, both parties refusing to yield.

One of the notable cases that hung fire in the Kentucky courts for many years was known as the "Madison County Calf Case." Two farmers fell out after a dispute over the ownership of a calf and went to court. The case was bitterly contested and was appealed from court to court until it went to the Court of Appeals several times before it was finally decided. All the time the costs of the litigation piled up until they amounted to over a thousand dollars, many times the price of the calf that caused the battle.

It has often been said that nothing has been devised that will promote more trouble or bitter feeling between the parties than a legal fight over a will. Often such litigation has resulted in lifelong enmity between blood kin and caused them to go to their graves embittered against each other. Sometimes wills are broken in Kentucky, but as a rule the juries stand by the testator and his wishes.

Force of Habit.

The reason why most husbands and wives aren't divorced is because they become a habit to each other, even their faults—their imperfections.—From the "House of Mohun," by George Gibbs.

"THE ROYAL SERENADERS" AT PARIS GRAND THURSDAY

The Royal Serenaders will appear at The Paris Grand Opera House Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, matinee and night.

This famous troupe of entertainers will please you with their sweet, weird and scintillating music and songs of the Hawaiian Islands. The native Hawaiian is a musician; this goes without question. Never did a people lend itself to music more than does the native Kanaka. He has a style of music typical his own, and this style he has developed until the repertoire of native airs is most extensive. Among the best known of all Hawaiian music is "Alaha Oai," and because of its wondrous sweetness, this air is familiar pretty much the world over. The native adopts any kind of musical instrument, and soon becomes adept on it. The guitar and his own ukelele (which means dancing flea) has made the music of these islands familiar to all. For over forty years the Royal Hawaiian band has charmed the visitor to Honolulu, for they play concerts daily in various parts of the city. This band was a play-thing of royalty in the days before the stars and stripes were raised over the islands, but after the islands came under the government of the United States of America, the band was kept, and to-day is one of the show things of Honolulu. The peculiar sliding tone of the ukelele has taken the world by storm, and you can hear almost any familiar tune rendered a la Hawaiian.

This is the company that sets the standard for Hawaiian music in America. This company is an added attraction with the romantic play "Under Hawaiian Skies," which comes to Paris so highly recommended.

NUTS FOR LIVELIHOOD

There is a belief that a large nut crop is the sign of a hard winter and if there is anything in the portent Kentucky is due for a long and severe winter. Reports from all over the State are that the nut yield is unusually large and that the walnut and hickory trees are loaded.

Nutting is a popular autumn diversion and with an abundant yield there seems nothing to prevent a large supply for the winter months. Already the roofs of most rural outhouses are laden with a layer of walnuts and hickory nuts undergoing the drying process preparatory to storing them for the winter. Under the circumstances the rural small boy is in his element, making frequent incursions into the woods to augment his supply.

The abundant yield has its commercial aspect. City dwellers, some of whom had almost forgotten the taste of a walnut or hickory nut, may have the chance to obtain the nuts at a reasonable price, since their rural cousins will have more than they can use and will ship them to the city market.

Pecans and filberts are grown in Western Kentucky and in some of the purchase counties the shipment of the nuts is a commercial venture. Fulton county pecans which are gathered in large quantities, rank high and command a good price in the markets.

GOVERNMENT AID PROPOSED FOR FARMERS

Creation of a corporation with government-subscribed capital of $100,000,000 to buy and sell farm products was proposed for a second time in a bill introduced by Senator Norris, of Nebraska, chairman of the Senate Agricultural Committee.

The measure is similar to one introduced by Senator Norris at the last session which was rejected by the Senate in favor of legislation to extend the life and farm loan powers of the War Finance Corporation.

The new Norris bill would give the corporation, with its directorate of the secretary of agriculture and two others appointed by the President, authority to acquire elevators and warehouses, to buy farm products in the United States and sell them either in this country or abroad, to advance funds for the sale or exportation of farm products and to operate unchartered government tonnage.

WILL BE A LONG WAIT FOR THANKSGIVING

Christmas shoppers will have only twenty days in which to get rid of their money after Thanksgiving this year—the shortest time possible with the modern calendar. "Turkey Day" came on November 30, the last day of the month. Christmas Eve is one of the four Sundays in December before Christmas, and the result is the unusually brief shopping season. November has not ended on Thanksgiving Day since 1911, and the occurrence will not be repeated until after 1923.

Not until a man has run a business for himself can he discuss business problems intelligently and systematically.

D'YE MIND THE TIME

When These Things Happened In Paris, As Told in THE NEWS' Files?

DAYS OF AULD LANG SYNE

There's no denying that to most of us there is a certain satisfaction in reviewing the events of long ago, as they are presented to us, either casually or by force of some reminiscence strain of the moment. And to those who lived here in the long ago the recalling of events in the old days of Paris affords a peculiar satisfaction all its own. They, perhaps, more than we who have grown used to the old place, will appreciate these items, taken at random from a copy of THE BOURBON NEWS of Wednesday, July 6, 1881:

John Lyle sold the Paris Fire Company last week to a Millersburg man, for fifty cents.

"Cut, rob and steal," is the new motto adopted by a facetious Paris merchant.

THE BOURBON NEWS issued two extras Saturday on account of the assassination of President Garfield.

Charlie Gorham, of Paris, has been engaged as private watchman for Davie's new distillery now in course of construction at Millersburg, and has commenced duty.

Wolf & Trost band, of Lexington, has been engaged to make music for our coming fair—a good change. Dan Earlywine has been awarded the contract for lighting and extinguishing the street gas lamps at $20 per month.

Married—At the residence of the bride's mother, in this city, last Thursday, Miss Lillie Doeherer, to W. H. Mattox, Lawrenceburg, Ky. Common Pleas Court convened Monday with Judge French on the bench. The docket is very small, consisting of only 17 common law and 5 equity cases.

One of the large glass window panes in Lovely & White's grocery was accidentally broken on Monday by Eld. J. S. Sweeney running his elbow through it.

Charles Offutt spoke to a large audience in the court house Monday. Skinner failed to put in an appearance and for that let us snow him under by 400 majority.

Ben Deering's Republican has been sold to a stock company, but Ben will still be permitted to sound his hugag through its columns.

The catalogues for the 44th annual fair of the Bourbon County Agricultural Society have just been issued and can be had on application to the Secretary, Col. L. P. Muir.

Died—In this city, last Saturday, of consumption, W. C. Lyons, aged about sixty years—At the residence of her husband, in this county, July 1, Mrs. McDonald, wife of Overton McDonald.

A difficulty occurred in a harvest field near Flat Rock, last Saturday, between Dick Freeman, white, and John Fields, black, in which the former cut the latter's throat with a knife, killing him instantly.

The following have been elected teachers in our City School for the next session: H. R. Blaisdell, Principal; Misses Blanche Matheny, Keith Spears, Annie Oldson, Mrs. Lizzie Walker and Mrs. Woodward. The teachers of the colored schools are Eld. J. C. Graves and Mrs. Frazier.

Monday was regular court day and not much of a crowd in attendance. About 200 cattle on the market with sales good, two year-olds selling at 4 1/2 cents, yearlings at $20 to $26. One lot medium three-year-old mules sold at $94.50 per head. One lot of yearlings bid to $75 and withdrawn. Plug horses sold at usual prices.

The Lexington Press makes a grand kick against the extension of the K. C. road from Paris, and alleges that city property has been damaged ten per cent. by it not being extended from there.

The entire composition of Bruce Champ's paper, THE BOURBON NEWS, is done by little fourteen-year-old fellows, Masters Walter Champ and Bruce Miller, and we must say that they make as few errors as many who have been at the business for years.—Sunday Mirror.

Kehoe, of the Carlisle Mercury, published the cut of a bob-tailed comet last week and called it our comet. That Nicholas county comet may have its tail cut down, but our Bourbon comet sticks its gingered tail up eight millions of miles high, and don't feel proud at that.

Henry Morris, the newly married editor of the Mason County Journal, accomplished the remarkable feat of riding horse-back twenty miles in four hours one day last week. After regaining strength enough to write, he got off a remarkable essay on "What We Know of Riding." We heartily approve of the "Resolution" coupled to his essay.

Just Let Us Catch Him!

A poet sings, "For thee I'd cast the world aside." Reckless fellows, these poets! Don't seem to care what disaster they might bring upon the rest of us by throwing the world off its axis that way.—Boston Transcript.

RETROGRESSIVE CONVERSION

Renunciation of the Christian religion after a service of fifty years in the ministry by a New York clergyman, who has just issued a book explaining his action, recalls the unique and stormy career of the late Charles C. Moore, of Fayette county, a confirmed atheist, who died about twenty years ago. Like the New York rector, Mr. Moore was at one time pastor of a church.

According to his own version, Mr. Moore's denunciation of Christianity came about in a most unusual way. While pastor of the church Mr. Moore entertained a stranger, an admitted atheist, and undertook to convert him to the Christian religion. The two engaged in a two-weeks' discussion at the end of which the atheist embraced religion and Mr. Moore became an unbeliever.

While the former atheist entered the ministry, Mr. Moore turned his back on the church and started the publication of a paper, the Bluegrass Blade, in the effort to combat religion and promote atheism.

His rabid utterances frequently got him into trouble. He spent some time in jail and posed as a martyr, editing his paper from behind the bars of his cell. At one time he stirred up a hornets' nest by publishing in his paper that the "nearest point to hell is three feet below the front entrance of—" mentioning a church in a Central Kentucky town. He was roughly handled by some indignant persons for this offense. Until his death his publication reflected his bitter attitude toward Christianity and the ministry.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

is greatly relieved by constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions. Circulars free. All Druggists. AUTO LAW BREAKERS GET WHAT'S COMING

Thirty-one persons, including one woman, were in jail in Los Angeles, Calif., one whole day, for speeding and reckless driving, bringing up to eighty-five the total to receive such sentences in the Los Angeles police court in one week. Fifty alleged offenders were notified to appear for pleading.

"If we can not get all of the speeders in the court room we will adjourn to a vacant lot," announced Police Judge Joseph F. Chambers.

"I am sending speed maniacs to jail, because that is where they belong."

FISHER TELLS US

What has become of the old-fashioned Paris man who used to whistle "After The Ball Is Over," and "Sweet Marie?"—Bourbon News.

Possibly spends his time whistling for a son, who, together with some sweet Marie, is busily engaged in proving, long before the ball is over, that though the moonlight may be bright along the Wabash, the moonshine's stronger in Kentucky.—Carlisle Mercury

WINCHESTER MAN RAISED TO MAJOR-GENERAL

Brigadier-General Frank Long Winn, among the seven army officers nominated by President Harding for the rank of Major-General, is a native of this State and attended Centre College. He was born at Winchester. General Winn graduated from the military academy in 1886. He has served in the army continuously since that time. He holds several medals for distinguished service.

DAINTY LITTLE ARTIST AT THE GRAND TO-NIGHT

At the Paris Grand last night dainty little Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, a petite and charming lassie, gave a series of classic dancing and poses which delighted the large audience, and gained the dancer untold praise and applause. Miss Ferguson will appear at the Grand to-night at 8:30, in addition to the regular picture program.

To-night's program will be featured by Owen Moore in "Reported Missing," which is said to be one of the best plays this popular screen artist has ever played in. Henry Lehrman, who wrote and directed this melodramatic comedy, was given free rein to add to the gayety of a nation. You will laugh over Owen Moore's embarrassing situations.

To-morrow afternoon and night the film attraction will be Mildred Harris in "The First Woman." What would Eve, the first woman think if she could live again? She would have a big laugh if she could see Mildred Harris, in "The First Woman." At the Alamo to-morrow afternoon, and Paris Grand at night.

BASKET BALL TEAMS

At a recent meeting of the Young Men's Gymnasium class, whose workouts are scheduled for every Monday, Wednesday and Thursday night for the purpose of developing a Y. M. C. A. basketball team, a business manager was elected for the season to take care of the matter of booking games with rival organizations in the surrounding towns.

It is planned to select Coach Bucheit, of the University of Kentucky one night in the week to take charge and whip the boys into shape for the opening game, which it is thought will be played on the local floor with a strong team about December 15. Should Bucheit not be available, another man will be secured to handle the team.

Prospects are favorable for the forming of a strong schedule this season, and the "Y" will have a team ready to take the floor and give a good account of themselves, judging by the form shown in earlier season practice. The Y. M. C. A. is fortunate in having such veterans as Roberts, McIntyre, Kenney and Chipley return to the team. Around them will be built a fast organization, and though Porte and Dawes, stellar performers on last year's team, will not be seen under a "Y" jersey this year, the team will compare favorably with the outfits of previous campaigns.

All men are not equal in mind, but they can be in heart.

PERSONALS

—Mrs. Evelyn Buck visited friends and relatives in Cincinnati from Friday to Monday.

A JOB FOR YOU, MR. READER

Too many people seem to think their duty of citizenship ends when they vote and obey the law. Having put a man in office they stand at ease until the next order comes to resume the political march. Unless there be a rapid awakening the time is not far distant in this territory when an object lesson will force the taxpayers to realize they must be on the job and that they are a part, in fact the most important part, of the government. The lesson will come in the shortage of coal. We are basking now in the autumn, but it will not be long before the fires and furnaces will be going full blast. Any thinking man knows there will be a coal shortage. The conditions in the local coal yards are well known, and the increasing difficulty of obtaining fuel can be learned by any one who cares to inquire. If the people had been alive to their duty they would not to-day be caught between the millstones, the coal barons on the one hand and the labor leaders on the other squeezing out their lives. The public could have ended the strike in short order. But the public remained indifferent. Warm weather was no time to get excited about a possible coal shortage. The coal barons have not worried. They don't care whether there is a shortage or not. They will arrange their output by fixing prices.

Even to-day the individual remains apathetic. If every man and woman were to write a letter to our Congressmen and to our two United States Senators, particularly the Congressmen, asking what steps are being taken to protect his district and demanding that he see that we obtain an adequate supply of coal, something might be done. There are plenty of letters written for free seeds. Why not a line on fair priced coal. Let our Congressmen see we are on the job and that we expect him to do what he can to protect the people who sent him to Congress.

CANNOT GIVE AWAY A DRINK

The final chapter in the move to make the giving away of a drink of intoxicating liquor an offense under the 1920 prohibition law was written when Judge Gus Thomas in the Court of Appeals overruled the motion of W. W. Simpson, of Butler county, for a rehearing of his case.

Simpson was charged with giving away a drink of liquor and the findings of the Butler Circuit Court which declared the gift of a drink of liquor a violation of the 1920 prohibition law was sustained. In the motion for the rehearing Simpson asked for a modified opinion and this motion was dismissed also by Judge Thomas.

ST. LOUIS PHYSICIANS ATTACK DRY LAW

The Volstead act was attacked as "provocative of disrespect for law," as an "obnoxious invasion of the prerogative of physician" and as indirectly detrimental to the health of users of alcohol by causing the consumption of "deleterious concoctions and beverages." In a resolution adopted by the St. Louis Medical Society of Research in session at St. Louis.

PUBLIC SALE

BANK STOCK

As administratrix of the estate of L. J. Fretwell, deceased, I will offer for sale at the court house door in Paris, Kentucky, at about the hour of 11 o'clock a. m., on the following property of said decedent, to-wit:

Five (5) shares of the capital stock of the Peoples-Deposit Bank and Trust Company, and three (3) shares of the capital stock of the Farmers and Traders Bank.

This sale will be made for cash or upon a credit of three months, for which the purchaser will be required to execute bond with good and approved security, payable to me as administratrix of L. J. Fretwell, and bearing interest at the rate of 6% per annum from the day of sale until paid.

AMNE PRICHARD BROWN,
Admr. of L. J. Fretwell, Deceased.

PERSONALS

—Mrs. Carl Crawford has returned from St. Joseph's Hospital, in Lexington, where she has been a patient for the past two weeks.

—Charles A. Duncan, of Paris, has returned from Nashville, Tenn., where he went to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sudie Duncan Bumpus, wife of Dr. W. H. Bumpus.

—Miss Frances Kenney is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Kenney, and has as her guests Misses Amanda Gordon, Bertha Craft and Dorothy Moran, fellow-students at the University of Kentucky.

—One of the most delightful social events of the present season was the progressive euchre given at the Catholic Hall, on High street last night, beginning at eight o'clock. The affair was under auspices of the P. I. McCarthy Council, Knights of Columbus. A program of vocal and instrumental selections was rendered by local talent, and a delicious supper of tempting viands was served. A big bronze gobble was auctioned, netting a handsome sum. About two hundred attended.

—Mrs. Robert Meteer was hostess to about thirty friends at her home on the Lexington road, near Paris, with a delightful luncheon-bridge. At one o'clock an elaborate luncheon, suggestive of Thanksgiving Day, was served, after which several games of bridge occupied the attention of the guests. At the conclusion of the games a basket filled with Thanksgiving emblems was brought in and to each guest was presented a favor. Mrs. Meteer's hospitality included Mesdames Walter Kenney, James Dodge, W. Ed. Tucker, John A. Bower, Thompson H. Tarr, W. W. Judy, Jos. M. Hall, W. K. Griffin, Denis Dundon, Edward Turner, Fielding Rogers, Buckner Woodford, Will G. McClintock, Charles May, J. W. Bacon, Warren Rogers, Sidney Ardery, Waller Dalby, Carley Wilmoth, Thos. W. A CARD TO THE PUBLIC

I hear from a number of sources of criticisms being made on me taking Jos. Wills, a prisoner in the Paris jail, every day for a walk. The fact of the matter is that I take him, on the order of Judge James C. Dedman and Commonwealth's Attorney Bradley, to the offices of Drs. Kenney & Stoelcker, where he is being treated, as the physicians preferred this method, instead of bringing their instruments to the jail. I deem this sufficient answer to my self-constituted critics, and hope they will get some satisfaction from it.
(Signed) JAS. E. TAYLOR, Jailer.

RUSH TO PAY TAXES

The office of Sheriff M. Peale Collier looked like a bargain counter day in a department store yesterday. Hundreds of taxpayers eager to avoid the penalty which will go on unpaid taxes December 1, visited the office through the day.

But two days now remain in which to pay taxes; the last day of the month being a holiday, Thanksgiving day. The office of the Sheriff is being kept open until nine o'clock every night in order to accommodate those who could not get to the place during the day. Sheriff Collier and his accommodating deputies, James Gibson, Robert Gilkey and Douglas Thomas, are at the service of the taxpayers. Come in early and avoid the rush—and the penalty.

—Mrs. Clay Sutherland and Laron Griffin, of Paris, visited friends and relatives in Maysville the past week.

—Mrs. James A. Orr, of Stoner avenue, has returned from a visit to her brother, Stanley Ranson and other relatives, in Richwood, Ky.

—Miss Eleanor Swango has returned from a visit to Miss Frances Greer, at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Greer, in Ft. Thomas, Ky.

—Mrs. James W. Thompson was hostess to the members of the Young Married Women's Bridge Club at her home on the Jackstown road, near Paris, Saturday afternoon. Delightful refreshments were served.

—Dr. Martha Petree received a telegram announcing the death of Dr. George A. Still, president of the School of Osteopathy, at Kirksville, Mo., one of the most distinguished osteopaths in the United States.

—Miss Jessie Spencer, who has been at Charleston, West Va., for a week teaching in one of the Standard Training Schools, returned Saturday to her home in Lexington. Her mother, Mrs. I. J. Spencer, has been a guest of her daughter, Mrs. William B. Ardery, at her home near Paris, also returned home Saturday.

—Blue Grass Council United Commercial Travelers, of Lexington, which has a number of members in Paris, will hold their annual rally and dance Saturday night, celebrating with a dance at the Phoenix Hotel, from eight to twelve o'clock. More than five hundred members are expected to be present. Cards for admittance will be necessary.

—Mr. and Mrs. Milton J. Stern were hosts at their home on Mt. Airy avenue, to a six-o'clock dinner, their guests including the following physicians: Drs. A. H. Keller, J. A. Stoeckinger, Marmaduke Brown, W. C. Ussery, J. A. Gilkey, F. M. Faries, C. G. Daugherty, J. A. Orr, of Paris, and Drs. South and Blackerby, of Louisville, the two latter coming to Paris to address the Bourbon County Medical Society.

—"Oakland," the country home of Miss Frances Clay, on the Winchester road, near Paris, was the setting for a lovely entertainment on Friday afternoon, when Mrs. Harry B. Clay, Mrs. Samuel Willis and Mrs. John W. Young were hosts to about three hundred guests, who came from Bourbon and the surrounding counties in response to beautifully fashioned invitations.

The hours were from two o'clock until five and all during these hours a lovely program of music from the harp and violin was enjoyed. The home, lovely throughout with its spacious rooms and halls, was beautifully decorated with the season's choicest blossoms, the chrysanthemums, yellow and white, being the colors used, with graceful Southern smilax draping doors, windows and chandeliers. The dining room was especially attractive with its many lighted tapers in silver candelabra. The table had a covering of lace, and for a centerpiece a silver pitcher, with a huge bunch of yellow chrysanthemums. Surrounding this were silver compots of yellow and white mints and almonds.

Miss Margaret Ardery very gracefully presided at the coffee urn, and Mrs. Beverly Jouett, Mrs. Drake Vaughn of Winchester, and Mrs. Amos Turney, Mrs. Robert Jones and Miss Nell Clay, assisted in looking after the comfort of the guests. A delicious meat and salad course was served.

The guests were received in the living room and very cordially entertained by Mrs. May Stoner Clay, Mrs. Thornwell Tadlock, Mrs. J. T. Vansant and Mrs. Allie Smith Dickson. Little Miss Anne Katherine Young, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tollie Young, received the guests' cards at the door. Others who assisted the hosts were Mrs. Robert J. Neely, Mrs. John A. Lyle, Mrs. Newton Mitchell, Mrs. Virgil Chapman, Mrs. Katherine Reading, Mrs. Wm. O. Hinton, Mrs. Clay, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Young and Miss Frances Clay, all beautifully gowned, composing the receiving line, stood in the east drawing room, and were very happy in their reception of their guests.

The beautifully appointed table in the library, where punch was served, was presided over by two charming young matrons, Mrs. Tollie Young and Mrs. Fielding Rogers, assisted by Mrs. Edwin Thomas and Miss Elizabeth Crutcher.

This has been a season of many weddings and these lovely young brides, effervescent with youth and happiness, added much to the brilliant success of the occasion.

—Mrs. Ida Burgess, of Paris, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Nannie Patterson, in Georgetown.

—Miss Bessie Rogers has returned to her home in Georgetown, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Maggie Rogers McClintock, in this city.

—Mrs. John L. Bosley, formerly of Paris, residing in Winchester, has gone to Lake Worth, Florida, to join her husband, Prof. Bosley.

—D. Clyde McNamara, of New Albany, Indiana, en route home from a stay in the South, was a visitor to friends and relatives in Paris yesterday.

—Lieut. Lot Young has returned to his home in North Middletown, after a pleasant visit with his old Confederate army comrade, William Barker, in Owingsville.

—Mrs. Robert Jones, of Paris, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Edward Andrews, in Lexington, sang a solo at the morning service at the Central Christian church.

—Dr. George Rankin, of Shawhan, is at the Vail Hospital, in Cincinnati, where he recently underwent an operation. He was reported yesterday as doing very nicely.

—Miss Inez Caudill, secretary of the Bourbon County Red Cross Chapter, has returned from Louisville, where she had been attending the sessions of the Kentucky State Red Cross Conference.

—Dr. F. M. Powell, professor of history in the Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville, and Rev. J. E. Moss, pastor of the Cynthiana Methodist church, were recent guests of Rev. and Mrs. O. R. Crockett, in this city.

—Judge James C. Dedman, who is presiding over the Bourbon Circuit Court in the absence of Judge R. Lee Stout, was a guest of honor at a turkey dinner at the Stout Cafe by members of the Bourbon county bar. A number of invited guests also partook of the evening's pleasure. Judge Denis Dundon acted as toastmaster, and addresses were made by John J. Williams, Claude M. Thomas, Emmett M. Dickson, Victor A. Bradley and Judge Dedman. A committee composed of Robert C. Talbott, Emmett M. Dickson and Claude M. Thomas was appointed to send a telegram to Judge Stout, regretting his inability to be present at the supper, and expressing the wish that he would soon be restored to health.

STATUE OF WATTERSON IN NEW YORK

The Kentucky Society of New York, at the annual meeting at the Hotel Astor, laid plans for erecting in one of New York's public parks, a statue of Henry Watterson. The proposition was placed before the club by Edward M. Flexner, of Louisville, a member of the Watterson Memorial Commission here. Three hundred members of the club attended the meeting.

Joseph Hartfield, New York attorney, who formerly was on the staff of the Henderson (Ky.) Gleaner, was appointed chairman to select a committee of five to raise funds for the Henry Watterson statue and to co-operate with a like committee from the Manhattan Club headed by W. Burke Cochran. Mr. Hartfield and Evan M. Shelby, of New York, a former Kentuckian, spoke in favor of the project with Mr. Flexner. The members recalled that Mr. Watterson had spent many happy hours in New York and eagerly pledged organized effort to put over the memorial project.

Mr. Flexner told the club that Mr. Watterson had squelched all memorial talk while he was living and even said he would "spank" any friend who suggested it. The great writer he said has erected a monument in the hearts of all Kentuckians and made The Courier-Journal a guide in politics, economics and public welfare, not only in Kentucky, but throughout the country.

LIBERTY BONDS ARE DECIDED TAXABLE

The States have the right to tax Liberty Bonds owned by banks for State purposes, the U. S. Supreme Court held in affirming a decision of the Oklahoma Courts.

Taxation by Oklahoma for State purposes of Liberty Bonds exempted from taxation by the Federal Government was protested in an appeal to the Supreme Court by the People's National Bank of Kingfisher, Okla.

SWIFT SILVER MINE HUMBUG

A good many Kentucky papers are rehashing the old hoax about the "Swift Silver Mine," and we are in regard to it a good deal like the story they tell about the man from wayback who went to see the animals in a zoological garden. When they came to the giraffe, the old fellow looked at it once or twice, and then exclaimed, "There haint no sich animile."

WOMEN'S WOES

Paris Women Are Finding Relief at Last

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. J. R. Moore, 133 E. Eighth street, Paris, says: "I was in bad shape with my kidneys and I was weak and miserable. I often had to let my housework go undone and I got so dizzy, black specks came before my eyes. My feet and ankles swelled. I doctored for a time but got no relief until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. My health was greatly improved in a short time and two boxes cured me. It is a pleasure for me to recommend Doan's."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moore had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

NATIONALLY KNOWN OSTEO-PATH KILLED

His wife, parents and thirty-five guests at an entertainment at his home saw Dr. George A. Still, president of the American School of Osteopathy, at Kirksville, Mo., and nationally known as an osteopath, killed when he accidentally dropped a pistol and a bullet from it penetrated his brain. The bullet entered his left cheek.

Dr. Still, sportsman, and lover of the outdoors, had shown members of the party his shotguns and was exhibiting the mechanism of a recently purchased pistol when the accident occurred.

"California Fig Syrup" is Child's Best Laxative

Hurry mother! Even a cross, sick child loves the "fuity" tastes of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful to-day may prevent a sick child to-morrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup. (adv-T)

KENTUCKY FARMERS TO HAVE STATE PAPER

That Kentucky farmers are to have a paper printed in their own State and devoted exclusively to their own interests, is the declaration of principles and announcement of policies contained in the current issue of the New Farmers Home Journal coming from the press last week. An aggressive, non-political fight will be made in the farmers' behalf, in State and National legislative assemblies, looking toward a closer unity of interests between all industry and business with agriculture, in which the driving power of the nation's wealth will get behind the farmer first, as the chief support of everything else, according to D. B. G. Rose, president of the reorganized Journal, oldest farm paper in the State and the only one to be published in Kentucky.

A special correspondent is "keeping an eye on Congress" at Washington, according to the issue now published, and it is understood the Washington letters will be a permanent feature. Twelve different departments cover the entire agricultural field of news in Kentucky, the articles relative to the Burley Tobacco Co-operative Association, the Live Stock Improvement Association, the fight led by Kentucky breeders for better freight rates than those that have threatened extinction of live stock industry in the South, being particularly interesting and informative.

JUDGE PREWITT ILL

Hon. Henry R. Prewitt, Judge of the Montgomery Circuit Court, while hunting near Mt. Sterling, was suddenly stricken. On his return home physicians were called and restoratives administered. He was later taken to a Louisville hospital, where he is under care of a specialist. Judge Prewitt has a host of friends in Bourbon county, who wish him an early and complete recovery.

THE WOMAN IN THE CASE

When a murder is committed, any time or any place. The authorities start looking for "the woman in the case." She is more than oft' a lady With a reputation shady. Neither prudish nor old-maidy Is the woman in the case. And before they find the weapon or the motive of the crime Or the victim's name or address (they can find that any time) They prepare a mental picture of the prepossessing face Of a lady who is charming, who has pulchritude and grace And a female hypothetical, mysterious, they chase. She's "the woman in the case."

When a millionaire goes bankrupt and his margins can not face, The referee says: "Surely there's a woman in the case. From a standpoint comprehensive."

So he starts a strong offensive At the woman in the case. For the gentlemanly bankrupt couldn't have spent all his wealth,

Single-handed in an innocent platonic search for health, And he must have had assistance in the blowing of the dough. And who could help him better, than some lady he might know. An expert in the fascinating come-ons of her race— "She's the woman in the case."

She's been at it since this planet started shimmying through space.

And her speed is not retarded as the years draw on apace. She is most exasperating And she keeps us extirpating, By her foibles unabating And her fascinating grace. She has kept the world excited, kept it wondering and cursin', And the headlines always tell us that an "interesting person" Is the "woman in the case."

Wonder what a chewing gum magnate says when he steps on a wad of his gum?

A DESERVED VICTORY

In explaining the Democratic victory of November 7 and highly approving it, the Republican Boston Transcript editorially says, among other things:

"The best part about the wiggling which the people have given at the polls in many parts of the country to the party in power is that the wiggling was well deserved. . . . The party in power has neglected its opportunity, faltered in the face of grave and pressing problems, played fast and loose with the veterans of the Great War, goose-stepped before organized bands of noisy minorities, honey-fudged the pacifists, enacted a tariff bill that, as we have repeatedly said, is 'a disgrace to the Republican party and a menace to the Nation,' insulted the intelligence and inflamed the passion of the electorate in many parts of the country by appointments to office that are indefensible on any score—for example E. Mont Reilly as governor of Porto Rico and a whole tribe of political swindlers south of the Mason-Dixon line.

"Instead of leadership in the lower house of Congress the Republicans have set up an oligarchy consisting of Mondell, of Wyoming, Madden, of Illinois, Kelley, of Michigan, and Anthony, of Kansas—the worst of the lot. Instead of resisting the impudent and insolent manner in which this oligarchy has invaded the constitutional premises of the Executive, the Executive has in too many instances, salaamed before the invaders. In the place of 'one man government' at the executive end of the avenue, the party in power has given the country a taste of misgovernment at both ends by the congressional oligarchy as unfit to administer as it was to legislate."

QUESTIONS STATE'S RIGHT TO TAX DRUGGISTS

In a tax suit filed in the Franklin Circuit Court J. W. Renaker, of Cynthiana, attacks the constitutionality of the act which requires druggists to pay an annual license of $100 for the right to sell intoxicating liquors. Druggists throughout the State will be affected by the decision of the courts, according to attorneys.

The action was brought against John J. Craig, State Auditor, to whom the license of $100 is paid. Mr. Renaker seeks to recover payments made in 1921 and 1922.

In his petition Mr. Renaker claims that the national prohibition law abrogates that section of the Kentucky statutes which imposes the license on druggists. Mr. Renaker states that he has made repeated efforts to get a refund on his license payments, but that the Auditor claimed the right to impose the tax.

Attorney General Chas. L. Dawson said that in his opinion the license was not affected by either the National or State prohibition laws, and that the auditor should continue to require payments for the privilege of selling liquor.

Aunt Mary writes the folks about her birthday in Cincinnati:

The past few days have found me wishing I was twins. Cousin Sue took sick and with looking after her, the children and home, I haven't had a minute to myself. That Henry and I should be in Cincinnati at such a time seems almost an act of Providence.

You know how men are in time of sickness—try so hard to help they get under foot. Henry's no exception. So I just shoo him out of the house in the morning and look for him when it's time for supper.

Yesterday was my birthday. Of course you knew it was or you wouldn't have remembered me with such a beautiful gift.

Henry says you don't know what you gave me, having sent the money on and told him to pick something out at Mabley's.

He did. The most wonderful fitted bag you ever saw. Everything from nail file to hair brush. My, I'll have to travel all the rest of my life with such a bag. You shouldn't have remembered me so much.

Henry gave me an umbrella. He said he had a hard time selecting it at Mabley's because every one they showed him seemed the best. I just can't wait until it rains so I can use it.

When I came down to supper that night, I did have a surprise. —There on the table was a huge birthday cake with candles. Not one for every year, as it would have been all candles and no cake, but there were a plenty. Where the cake came from was beyond me as Cousin Sue was too sick to do any baking and I knew I hadn't made it myself.

Where do you suppose it came from? From Mabley's Annex. Henry bought it.

It does beat all what men can do when it comes to "women shopping." Henry says that he didn't have an idea what to buy me when he went down street that morning. Crossing Fountain Square, he saw some women's hats in Mabley's window. That kind of brought to his mind the time I spoiled mine when I was caught in a rain storm. "So," he said, "I just went into Mabley's and bought you an umbrella." Then he told the girl it was for my birthday and asked for other suggestions. He told her about our trip here and that we were planning another trip this winter. She was real friendly, took him to the bag department and introduced him to the clerk there. Before leaving she kind of hinted I might like a birthday cake and that he could buy one in their Annex.

Henry says: "It do beat all how friendly and helpful Mabley's is to out-of-town folks."

Henry's going to write you soon and tell you all he's been doing while I've been indoors.

Yours Truly,

Mary.

DEATHS

Life Is But A Brief Span, A Debt That All Must Pay

O'NEAL

—Mrs. Mary E. O'Neal, widow of the late Patrick O'Neal, both longtime residents of Maysville, died at the home of her son, Patrick O'Neal, in Cincinnati, Thursday night, after a week's illness of pneumonia. Mrs. O'Neal was in her eightieth year.

She leaves nine children. Martin O'Neal, of Paris; Mrs. William Ricketts, Patrick O'Neal, Mrs. Jas. Henry, of Cincinnati; Mrs. John Lane, of Mt. Sterling; Mrs. John Voglepool, of Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. Thomas O'Neal, of New Richmond, Ohio.

Funeral services were held at St. Michael's Catholic church, in Cincinnati, yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock. The body was brought to Maysville on the C. & O. train at 1:25 yesterday afternoon, and taken direct to the Washington Catholic Cemetery, where the interment took place in the family lot.

SETTLES

—Mrs. Lou Settles, aged ninety-four, a former resident of Bourbon county, died Friday of pneumonia, at the home of Mrs. Bert VanEvera, in Mt. Sterling, where she had resided for the past three years. Mrs. Settles was born and reared near North Middletown, and moved to Mt. Sterling in 1904. She was the widow of Wm. H. Settles, of North Middletown. She is survived by one son, Robert Settles, of Mt. Sterling, one daughter, Mrs. Robert Wright, of Sedalia, Mo., and four grandchildren, Owen T. Gibson, of Paris, Mrs. Sparks Wilson, of North Middletown, and the two children of Robert Settles, of Mt. Sterling.

The funeral was held at the home of Bert VanEvera, in Mt. Sterling, at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. Bruce W. Trimble. The interment took place in Machpelah Cemetery. The pall-bearers were H. B. VanEvera, Garrett Sullivan, M. R. Hainline, James Thompson, Jos. Sullivan and Arthur Briley.

The following from Paris attended the funeral and burial at Mt. Sterling: Mr. and Mrs. J. Hooker Stivers, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Burley, Mrs. L. B. Keal, Mrs. James Stivers, Owen T. Gibson, Mrs. Clark Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Woods and son, Wallace Woods.

FUGAZZI

—The funeral of Fred Fugazzi, aged sixty-four, former resident of Paris, who died at his home in Lexington, from the effects of a paralytic stroke, was held Friday morning at nine o'clock, with services conducted at St. Peter's Catholic church, in Lexington, by Rev. Father William T. Punch. The interment followed on the family lot in the Lexington Catholic Cemetery.

During his residence in Paris Mr. Fugazzi conducted a restaurant and fruit business in the store room at present occupied by Harry Linville's shoe store. He moved to Lexington years ago, where he opened a fruit store at the corner of Main and Limestone streets, retiring from that business after a long and successful career. Mr. Fugazzi is survived by his widow, Mrs. Louise Fugazzi, one son, Fred Fugazzi, Jr., three brothers, three sisters. Two daughters, Miss Irene Fugazzi and Mrs. Flora Raymond, died within a day of each other during the winter of 1918. Miss Irene started and personally conducted the Fugazzi School of Business in Lexington for several years.

VIOLET

—Mrs. J. A. Violet, aged fifty-nine, widow of J. A. Violet, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. M. True, on Sixteenth street, in this city, Saturday afternoon, following an illness of a few months. Mrs. Violet's death was a sad sequel to the tragedy enacted in the home of her son, in Cincinnati, several months ago, when he shot and killed his wife and committed suicide. Physicians and close friends say Mrs. Violet's death was directly due to the worry following the shock of the tragedy. She was a native of Franklin county, and a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John T. Deakins.

The funeral was held at her late home on Sixteenth street yesterday morning at eleven o'clock. The body was taken to Frankfort for interment at two o'clock yesterday afternoon. The pall-bearers were Dr. D. S. Henry, W. H. Clark, Homer Kiser, Chas. R. Parent, Ossian Edwards and Charles Greene.

CALDWELL

—Mrs. Bessie Gault Caldwell, aged sixty-seven, died at ten o'clock Friday night at the home of her son, James M. Caldwell, on the Cane Ridge pike, near Paris following an illness of several months' duration from a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Caldwell was the widow of John Caldwell, who died several years ago, and was a daughter of the late James Gault and Elizabeth Kirk Gault, pioneer residents of Bourbon county. She is survived by two sons, James M. Caldwell, of Bourbon county, and Frank C. Caldwell, of Millersburg; one brother, W. W. Gault, of near Paris, and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Best, of Maysville, and Mrs. Robert Barnes, of Millersburg.

The funeral was held at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, with services conducted at the grave in the Millersburg Cemetery by Rev. W. W. Morton, pastor of the Millersburg Presbyterian church. The pall-bearers were James A. Butler, A. T. Moffett, D. E. Clarke, Simpson Butler, Dr. W. G. Dailey, John F. McDaniel.

RELIGIOUS

A Resume of Events in Religious Circles For Present and Future

—The Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold an all-day meeting in the church parlors to-day. All the members are requested to attend this meeting.

—Services will be held at St. Peter's Episcopal church Thanksgiving Day. Sermon at 10:45 a. m. by the rector, Rev. Walter S. Cain. The Ladies' Altar Guild of the church will hold an all-day meeting in the church parlors to-day.

—Rev. F. W. Eberhardt, former pastor of the Paris Baptist church, now in charge of the congregation of the Georgetown church, filled the pulpit of the local church Sunday at both services. Rev. Mr. Eberhardt delivered the principal address at the banquet given by the Men's Bible Class of the Millersburg church Saturday night.

—The Protestant churches of Paris will unite in a special Thanksgiving service at the Christian church, Thursday morning, at ten o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. O. B. Crockett, pastor of the Paris Methodist church. A special musical program appropriate to the occasion, will be rendered by the choir of the Paris Christian church.
